Introducing the Next Level Racing® GTLite Pro, the foldable GT-style racing cockpit loved by sim racers, now available in an elegant Carbon Grey color. Combining aesthetics with strength, the GTLite Pro enhances any racing setup with its sleek design while delivering a robust experience.

Designed with ergonomics in mind, the GTLite Pro offers immersive racing at an affordable price. It's compatible with entry-level Direct Drive wheelbases up to 13NM, and its lightweight, foldable frame with built-in roller wheels ensures easy storage and transport. The durable Carbon Grey frame is not only visually striking but built to endure the most intense racing sessions. The seat, inspired by true GT racing, provides maximum comfort with enhanced padding in key areas like the lower back, thighs, and shoulders.

Key adjustments are tool-free and can be made in seconds, allowing you to fine-tune your setup effortlessly. With simultaneous compatibility for both shifter and handbrake, the GTLite Pro delivers a complete and affordable racing experience.
